

Carol Harrison, B.Ed.

Sharing Heart to Heart

Carol Harrison has her Bachelor of Education, Distinguished Toastmaster designation and a year of Bible School. She believes we all need to be continuously learning and growing in our walk with God during this journey we call life. She lives out this passion by speaking at women's events and retreats, Bible Camps, as well as school assemblies and church events. Carol shares from her heart by combining real life stories and experiences with the truths from God's Word to teach and encourage others to be all that God wants them to be. Carol and her husband Brian live in Saskatoon, Sk. She is the author of one book, Amee's Story and has been published in multiple Chicken Soup for the Soul books as well as other anthologies.

Potential Topics

A Woman of Influence - Who Me?

Retreat package, which can also be a stand alone presentation, on becoming the woman God wants us to be, positively influencing whomever God places in our lives.

Life's Tough But There is Hope

This retreat package or individual message looks at the ups and downs, twists and turns of life can leave us feeling like our footing has dropped out from beneath us. Life has choices, changes and challenges for each of us. During this retreat package or single message, Carol uses story and Biblical truths to help offer a flicker of hope in the middle of despair.

Beautifully Rooted

This retreat package or individual message looks at being Rooted and Grounded in Christ which gives us identity, strength, and an anchor no matter what happens in and around us.
